

THE POSITION OF PREPOSITIONS IN RELATIVE CLAUSES

→ When the main verb has a preposition, the verb and the preposition have to be always together:

Tom is talking to a woman – do you know her?

Do you know the woman (who/that) Tom is talking to?

I slept in a bed last night – it wasn't very comfortable.

The bed (that/which) I slept in last night wasn't very comfortable.

→ More examples:

Are these the books (that/which) you were looking for?

The woman (who/that) he fell in love with left him after a month.

The man (who/that) I was sitting next to on the plane talked all the time.
